

Torrox Village House

House for sale in Torrox

Description

This beautiful village house is a few minutes walk from the main square of Torrox, near the newly restored church in the old town.

This spacious house consists of an entrance kitchen, adjoining room and bathroom. Up a small flight of stairs there is a second kitchen and another bathroom with shower. The first floor is composed of two double bedrooms and the upper floor consists of the terrace with beautiful views over the white village, the reddish church and the impressive Sierra in the background, as well as a storage area and another family bathroom.

The property includes being able to expand it with a house right next door in need of renovations.

This spacious property, with its large terrace, would only need a renovation to be ideal as a permanent residence or holiday home,
